Once again thank you for all your work.

To try and recap what I am doing and what I expect the outcome to be I give you the following;

To try and break the Timothy Hutchinson brickwall I have gone into complete submersion into the time, place and customs that intersect with Timothy.

I started with his children and their data points as a first division of the paper

From there the data points that connect to Timothy himself

And third all data points of his perspective father Samuel Hutchinson of Andover.

Here are the data points for the first division of the book.

The First Division

The Children (Data Collection)

Timothy Hutchinson's eight probable children are those listed in Frank Allen's book and one other daughter. Only four of the children have documents stating they are the son or daughter of Timothy, One other is proven by DNA and the others are an assumption based on surname, locality, date and association. (Update Mar 2 2020 John Hutchinson has been confirmed to be Timothy's son through the use of Y-DNA)

Under British common law, full majority was reached at the age of 21. Only persons who had reached majority could perform certain legal actions: Buy or sell land without restriction, Vote or hold public office, Patent land, Devise land in a will, Execute a bond or promissory note, Bring suit in one's own name, Be sued in one's own name, Serve on a jury, Act as a guardian, Marry without parental consent. [Commentaries on the Laws of England (1765-1769)] This is used to set baselines for the ages of some of the children.

The following are all known references to the children and the source of that mention.

Ebenezer Hutchinson (Husbandman/Laborer) married Elizabeth Marsh in Nov 1738 by Rev. Jeremiah Fogg in Kensington. [Record Book for Reverend Jeremiah Fogg.] Ebenezer is assumed to be a son of Timothy, because of church affiliation, surname and home town. No proof of parentage exists. Ebenezer is not trained by Timothy in a trade but works as a common farmer and laborer, maybe due to some unknown minor mental or physical limitation. This would also explain why he and Elizabeth stayed in Brentwood when their children went to Maine.

Ebenezer was born 11 Aug 1711 in Hampton Falls. This is based on the published works titled Genealogical and Family History of the State of Maine. I believe that he was born in Amesbury, MA. He married in 1738 which would put him at age 27. In 1739 he signs a petition which would indicate that he was born before 1718. He lived most of his life in Brentwood, NH. He is found in and amongst those who are called Quakers but in 1746 he has himself and family baptized in Kingston, NH into the congregational church which would remove him from the Quaker rolls.

Ebenezer married Elizabeth Marsh. After close scrutiny I believe that she was the daughter of John Marsh, a neighbor of Ebenezer Hutchinson in Exeter. Ebenezer's father had bought his first property from Ebenezer Loverell in 1712 and Samuel Loverell (Lovering) posted a surety for John Marsh in 1715.

Henry Marsh 1715 Durham [Elizabeth Marsh renounces administration on the estate of her husband in favor of her son, John Marsh, July 7, 1715.]
[Bond of John Marsh, with Samuel Lovering and Ephraim Leavitt, yeomen, as sureties, all of Exeter, in the sum of £100, Aug. 9, 1715, for the administration of the estate of his father, Henry Marsh of Oyster River; witnesses, Sebastian Judges and Richard Gerrish, Jr.]
[Warrant, Aug. 9, 1715, authorizing Stephen Jones and Jeremiah Burnham, both of Oyster River, to appraise the estate.]
[Inventory, Aug. 15, 1715; amount, £41 ; signed by Jeremiah Burnham and Stephen Jones.]
[Order of court, Aug. 18, 1715, authorizing the administrator to sell real estate to pay debts.]

Discoveries

1) The Smith line- Israel Smith and his brother Jacob were cordwainers, and sons of Jonathan Smith (son of Robert Smith dec'd neighbor to Timothy Hutchinson in the 1st West Division of Hampton, NH). Israel was the father of John Smith yeoman and grandfather of Jonathan, a cordwainer, Robert and Thomas Smith called yeoman. Thomas Smith married Susannah Hutchinson and was of Brentwood. [Based in part on Rockingham Co, NH deeds; 7-184, 10-163, 10-309, 20-309, 22-220, 57-304.]

2) The Marsh line-Elizabeth Marsh who married Ebenezer Hutchinson had no parentage. After reviewing all the facts and digging into all possible Elizabeth Marsh/March individuals I could find, I speculate that Elizabeth Marsh who married Ebenezer Hutchinson was a daughter of John March/Marsh a laborer of Exeter, NH and Elizabeth (surname unknown). John Marsh's father was Henry March/Marsh/Mash of Oyster River which became Durham, NH. Henry Marsh married Elizabeth Jackson daughter of Walter Jackson a captured Scot who was shipped to New England. A Thomas Newman calls Elizabeth Marsh wife of John Marsh "my mother". Thomas Newman also has a deed where he refers to John Marsh as his "Father in Law" this indicates that Elizabeth was most likely married before to a man named Newman. This Marsh line continues to Gilmanton where we find Jonathan Hutchinson's family.

Note the following land deeds that link John March and Ebenezer Hutchinson through James Dudley, Thomas Newman, Reuben Smith and the Smith Family. The deeds cover fifty-five years and it links the individuals even if we do not know what level of familiarity they might have shared. Henry Marsh of Oyster River lived next door to Moses Davis of Salisbury connecting the Marshes with Salisbury. (More on this later.) This John March I take to be Elizabeth's father and Ebenezer Hutchinson's Father-in-Law and the Smith family to be Susannah Hutchinson's husband's line. The last deed illustrates the affinity James Dudley had for the Quakers, being one himself.

Note Henry Marsh Jr (son of Isaac Marsh and probable grandson of John Marsh and Elizabeth) was born Brentwood, NH and married Hannah Folsum in Gilmanton at the same time that Dudley Hutchinson (son of Jonathan Hutchinson and Theodate Morrill) married her sister Mehitabel Folsum, in 1792. Henry Marsh Jr of Gilmanton would be John Marsh's grandson and Dudley Hutchinson is Ebenezer Hutchinson's nephew (Timothy's grandson).

3) After hours of research I believe that John Hutchinson's first wife was probably Sarah Cutt. The reasons are as follows; 1) The three children's names were Samuel, John and Sarah. Being the only daughter she would have been named for either her mother's mother or just her mother. Sarah Cutt, daughter of John and Susannah Ayers and granddaughter of John reinforces the use of John. Sarah as the mother works within the normal naming parameters. Given the birthdates of the children we can estimate that they married before 1748. If a first marriage for both of them, John was between 31 and 34 years of age at the time . The average age at marriage at this time period was about 25 for men and 22 for women. [In a sample of Plymouth Colony couples the age at marriage converged from 27.0 and 20.6 for men and women respectively born 1600–25 to 24.6 and 22.3 for those born 1675–1700 (sample size of 650 persons in five birth cohorts). Demos, John, A Little Commonwealth, Family Life in Plymouth Colony (New York: Oxford University Press, 1970), p. 193]

John would be older than normal but if we keep to the averages Sarah would have been born about 1726. 2) I find a Sarah Cutt of Portsmouth born 1725 whose father was John and whose property abutted William Partridge's land who was a cordwainer. The Partridge tie in is important because Timothy's neighbor Joseph Shaw married Elizabeth Partridge of the same Portsmouth family. William and Elizabeth were siblings and children of William of Salisbury. Joseph Shaw's daughter married Aaron Sleeper, an important name down the line. John Partridge, a cordwainer, married Mary Fernald whose family were wealthy cordwainers. I cannot help but think that, when in Salisbury, Timothy became part of an informal guild, a brotherhood of shoemakers. Timothy may even have been taught by John Partridge.

> As an illustration of the interconnected nature of families during this time period I offer the following; I found John Hutchinson Sr's second wife Mary Tobey, had a sister Martha Tobey of Portsmouth, NH. Martha married Solomon Staples of Kittery, ME who had a nephew John Staples from his brother Samuel Staples. John Staples married Hannah Smith. This Hannah (Smith) Staples of Deer Isle, ME, marries for a second husband John Hutchinson Jr of Sedgwick, ME. Bringing full circle from John Hutchinson Sr to John Hutchinson Jr from Portsmouth to Kensington to Sedgwick and back to Portsmouth.
> Followed by; A Deed from Martha Staples, widow, of Kittery and Benjamin James and his wife Abigail of Kensington, NH and the widow Mary Hutchins of Kensington, NH, land in Portsmouth bound in part by High Street Rd and the land of George Massey. I find Thomas Greeley sold the land to George Massey and that George Massey also bought adjoining properties from Samuel Tobey son of Richard and brother to Solomon Tobey. Apparently John Hutchinson dies after 1783 but before 1787 as Mary Hutchins the widow must be Mary Tobey. The Deed calls for Martha (Staples) wife of Solomon Tobey, Abigail (Tobey) James and Mary (Tobey?)Hutchins to sell to Jacob Walden. The land was originally that of Susannah Holland. [Deeds NHRD 0121-0440, 1787, NHRD 0040-0316, 1753, NHRD 0101-0285, 1753, NHRD 0032-0407, 1745]
> Based on the above Deed the widow Hutchins must be Mary Tobey the sister of Abigail and Solomon Tobey. This adds to our understanding of Timothy's son John. He sold everything in 1783 and moved back to Kensington where he died before 1787.

4) Mar 2 2020 I finally have a DNA match that is not connected to Jonathan Hutchinson. It is Timothy's son John Hutchinson who now has proof of parentage. With this information a new focus arises between the two sons that shared the occupation of cordwainer. Although no documentation has been found stating John was the son of Timothy, the DNA results confirm it.

Summary of the children.

The social interactions noted for the first division were primarily the neighbors, the selling and buying of property and the intermarriages between families.

Associated surnames for the children are;

1) By Marriage (children only); Marsh, Tobey, Morrill, Heath, Hunkins, Foster, Smith and one unknown (maybe Cutt).

2) By Land deeds; Dudley, White, Longfellow, Wiggin, French, Page, Cram, Morrill, Batchelder, Rowe, True, Phillips, Hook, Dearborn, Parsons, Marston, Gilman, Hilliard, Sanborn and Odiorne.

3) By Court Records; Prescott, Phillips, Sleeper, Ladd, Colcord, Gilman, Jaffrey, Prescott, Blake, Swett, Merrill, Parker, Odiorne and Wentworth.

This group of surnames will be referred to as the Kensington Clan[B1]

Some of these names will guide me as I try to discover how Timothy got from Andover, MA to Hampton Falls, NH. Two of Timothy's children married into the same Morrill family of Salisbury, MA and because there are no Morrills living close to Timothy it suggests that either a previous familial relationship existed or they were in some way aware of Timothy and his family. This gives us a new geographic point of intersection of Salisbury, MA bring this up to three. Born, Andover, trained in Salisbury and settled in Kensington.

Good morning,
Before I look at your 2 new emails, I have 2 pieces of evidence that don't seem to fit with everything you have told me....
1. The Kensington Town History says Timothy Hutchins came from KINGSTON, and
2. His house on Moulton Ridge Road was not built until c.1743.

I just noticed your email. Yes I did see that Timothy was from Kingston but no other reference. Frank Allen's book on this line "A Brief sketch of the Hutchinson Family of New Hampshire". 1896 does not give him an origin. I cannot seem to find your reference to Timothy being born in Kingston, could you give me more information. I have four books on the history of Kensington and cannot find the reference. Thank you. Yes the house was built in 1743, years after he married and had children. I am sure it was his second or third home. He bought the first lot in 1726 (2nd West Division) then another small lot in 1730 and again in 1731. I imagine he lived on his 1st West Division lot until he decided to move to the crossroads. It was wonderful to chat with you. Bill Got it, thanks! Still working on the area of the 2nd west division. One of the deeds states that lot 53 was bordered on the north by the quarter Mile Commons. I just cannot make this work so I am hunting the related deeds to see if I can make sense of this one. The lots I am most interested in are 6th range? Lots 68-84.

2nd division of the paper dealt with direct contact with Timothy Hutchinson.

The Second Division TIMOTHY'S LIFE IN HAMPTON FALLS AND KENSINGTON[B1], NH

The first mention of Timothy Hutchinson was in the town of Hampton in 1710 when he signed a petition asking to set apart a new parish on the south side of the Taylor River. By signing this we know he is of legal age of twenty-one years old. This fixes his latest birth year to between -1689This would be known as the falls parish and eventually Hampton Falls. Timothy arrived in what would become Hampton Falls sometime before the 1710 petition. He may have been there as early as the late 1690s, but with no real property or documents with proof we can only surmise that he probably was put up somewhere while he plied his trade. He would eventually accumulate enough money to purchase his own land.

Time Line
NOTE many assumptions are made here along with the known facts.

1675 - Samuel and Hannah are considered unfit parents by the Selectmen of Andover and they ask the court for power to place their children.
1675 - Timothy Hutchinson is born at about this time plus or minus a few years to Samuel Hutchinson and Hannah Johnson (daughter of John Johnson)Andover, MA.
1678 - Selectmen of Andover are granted by Ipswich Quarterly Court the power to place out his (Samuel and Hannah Hutchinson) children according to law. John, Samuel Jr and Timothy probably went to their grandfather's (John Johnson) home.
1678 - Samuel Hutchinson Jr appenticed to John Johnson as cordwainer.
1678 - Return Johnson and Joseph Swett both listed as inhabitants of Hampton, NH.
1685 - Timothy is apprenticed to become a shoemaker. Probably starts under Johnson but finishes under a master in Salisbury before working for Joseph Swett of Hampton Falls.(This is an assumption)
1697 - Timothy is working with Simon Fogg and Samuel Shaw in Hampton Falls as a cordwainer. (Assumption)
1704 - Samuel Hutchinson of Andover has died. Probable father of Timothy. Samuel's wife was Hannah Johnson daughter of John Johnson of Andover MA (Timothy is about 29 years old.)
1706 - "Samuel Hutchinson" probate and distribution of Samuel's estate lists a child named Timothy. This is the first mention of a "Timothy Hutchinson" that could be our man.
1709 - Timothy Hutchinson is not found on the tax rolls for Hampton, NH in 1709. This indicates that he is not a land owner at this time.
1710 - "Timothy Hutchinson" marries Hannah (Swett?) born 1682, Daughter of Joseph Swett. (Assumption as to the date.) Timothy would be about 35 years old and Hannah 28 years old.
1710 - "Timothy Hutchins" signs petition by inhabitants of Hampton Falls to be set off as a separate parish. This is the earliest mention of our proven line. Gives a minimum age as he would be 21 at this time. Born before 1689.

1711 - "Timothy Hutchinson's eldest son is born, named Ebenezer. FAH.
1712 - "Ebenezer Loverell" buys lots 151 and 152 of the 1st West Division from Benjamin Shaw of Hampton, NH. Bounded by Joseph Swett (brother in law) and Samuel Dow.
1713 - "Ebenezer Loverill" marries Esther Dearborn in Hampton Falls. Buys Lott 155 in 1st West Division from Joseph Swett.
1714/15 "Samuel Hutchinson Jr" now a cordwainer, sells land in Andover. (Land not in his father's estate but probable home of Samuel Hutchinson Sr.)
1715 - "Esther Dearborn Loverill" wife of Ebenezer loverell is baptized in Hampton Falls church by Theophilus Cotton.
1715 - "John Loverill" is born at the home of Samuel Shaw and speculation is that the child was his. Esther brought before court and swears it is Ebenezer's. In a Will Sam. Shaw and Eben. Loverin are called kinsman.
1717 - "Hannah Hutchins, wife of Timothy," baptized in the Hampton Falls church. (church records)
1718 - "Timothy Hutchins" bought shares 153, 154, 159 in the Fifth Range of the First West Division, Kensington, NH from Ebenezer Loverett (Loverell).
1723 - "Ebenezer Loverell" has died and will is probated.

1726 - "Timothy Hutchings" bought land from John Sellea which borders Hussey's Farm, land of Col Peter Weare, land of Capt Joseph Swett and a highway.
1728 - "Esther Dearborn Loverell" widow marries William Norton.
1730 - "Timothy Huchings" bought a two acre plot in Popple Plains district of Hampton Falls from William Norton (Cordwainer) and new husband to Esther Dearborn Loverell.
1730 - "Samuel Hutchinson Jr" of Andover sells property showing that his land had been bound by a track of land of Timothy Johnson probable grandson of Hannah who married Samuel Hutchinson.
1731 - "Timothy Huchings" bought a four acre plot of land adjacent to the previous in Popple Plains district Hampton Falls from Benjamin Swett (Cordwainer) and half brother to his wife. Popple Plains is where of Hilliard Rd joins Shaw's Rd.
1732/3 - "Timothy Huchesun" signs petition by inhabitants of Hampton Falls for a tavern license.
1733 - "Thimothy Huchsien," inhabitant of "Kingston and ye west part of Hampton" opposed to the formation of a new parish.
1736 - "Hannah Hutchins" daughter of Timothy christened in Hampton Falls Church.
1737 - Timothy Hutchinson in Kensington, setting boundary line between his estate and that of James Sanborn.
1738 - "Timothy Hutchinson" baptism of "my daughter" Phoebe 1739 - Timothy Hutchinson, inhabitant of Kensington, signs petition to be annexed to MA.
1742 - "Timothy Hutchinson" listed on Estate Tax list for Kensington, NH. 1 pol/ 1 house/ 1 horse/ 1 cow/ 2 (3 year olds)/ 2 (1 year olds)/ 10 acres planted/ 8 acres pasture
1746 - "Timothy Hoshison," inhabitant of Kensington, signs petition against the building of a bridge. Tim would be 73 years old at this time.
1754 - Moses Blake sells his land to David Green and describes the land as being next to Timothy Hutchins Land.
1759 - "Timothy Hutchinson" to Jonathan Hutchinson his homestead. This is the last official document that indicated Timothy was alive. Age 79 years old.
1777 - Apr Timothy Hutchinson listed as getting a bounty of 30 for Rev War Lodonderry NH

The Neighbors

I will start with Timothy Hutchinson's "Homestead". Timothy's first recorded property was bought in 1718 from Ebenezer Loverell. He bought three half share lots numbers 153, 154 and 159, (155). I believe that a recording error was made and lot 159 was supposed to read 155. Either way lots 153 and 154 were originally Thomas Philbrick's property. Thomas was recorded as a cordwainer on a deed in 1702. Lot 155 was owned by Henry Green who sold it to Joseph Swett. Ebenezer Loverell bought these three lots along with lots 151 and 152 that he kept for himself. Ebenezer died in 1724 and John Page bought lots 151 and 152.

Searching for the owners of the surrounding lots we find that a neighbor named James Perkins is a cordwainer who works with his son Jonathan on lots 121 and 122 and one named Thomas Robie who had a tanning business on lots 123 and 124 and whose son and father Ichabod were cordwainers. These are both on the south end of Timothy's property in the 1st West Division. The lots to the west (lots 151 and 152) were Henry Dows which were bought by Benjamin Shaw then by Ebenezer Loverell then Cram then Page so you see the difficulty in keeping track of who owns what during this time period. Others include Joseph Sanborn, cordwainer, 178, 179, Robert Smith's lot to the north 182 and 183. He was a tailor but his grandchildren were shoemakers. Lots 151 and 152 were temporarily Ebenezer Loverell's and although I couldn't find him listed as a cordwainer, his sons are listed, one as cordwainer and one as tanner.

Along with this Homestead property, Timothy bought lots along Red Oak Ridge road (also known as Moulton Ridge Rd.). Red Oak Ridge Rd becomes North Road as it heads to the East. From where Hilliard Rd enters Moulton Ridge Rd to where the Amesbury Rd intersects are a series of properties where Timothy bought and built homes. In approximately 1743 Timothy's home was built and I believe that this is where he did his cordwaining business for the rest of his life. This home still exists and the shoemakers shed still stands on the property. Keeping with the cordwainers theme, just across the Amesbury Rd to the east was the future shoe business of Edward Tuck. A steady flow of cordwainers came and went from this small area. Some of the old shoemakers kept it in the family with sons and daughters marrying other cordwainers. We see it in the Lane and Emmons family, the Bartletts of Salisbury and the Philbricks of Kingston. In 1727 Philip Perveare a cordwainer sold land that abutted Capt. Joseph Swett and Isaac Fellows. We also find that Benjamin Rowe a cordwainer later sold his land on Red Oak Ridge Rd to Joshua Lane a cordwainer. Moses Blake, a cordwainer, sold his land which abutted Jonathan Hutchinson's land to Joseph Fellows yet another cordwainer. The Emmons, Lane and Philbrick families have cordwainers older than Timothy but I believe that some of these shoemakers were trained by Timothy Hutchinson. Aaron Sleeper of Shaw's Hill was of the right age and in the right places to be trained by Timothy and afterward went to Kingston and settled with the Blaisdell family there.

Other than the shoe business the other interesting associations were those of the clergy. Timothy has personal contact with many deacons and reverends. As for Timothy's own religious inclinations, the church records of Hampton Falls were destroyed in a fire in 1858 so we can only speculate about his involvement in the church. The fact we find no military records or public office held by Timothy within the parish leads me to the conclusion that he may have had some agreement the Quaker religion but kept on good terms with the Congregational Church. Moving from Puritan held Massachusetts just before the witch trials to Hampton Falls, a refuge for those of the Quaker faith, supports the idea that he may have become one of them. Timothy's son Jonathan married in Salisbury, MA by Samuel Webster the town clerk (instead of a church marriage) [Salisbury, MA Vital Records 1637-1743 p.174] is listed as a "Friend" in a published book on the Morrill Family.[Morrill Kindred in America] Timothy's son John was excused from paying parish rates in Kensington in 1753. [Kensington Parish Records p. 49] A practice shown to Quakers at the time. His son Ebenezer moved to Brentwood and lived near the Quaker Meeting house given to the "Friends" by James Dudley. James Dudley had sold Ebenezer that land. Some of those that converted to the Quakers in Hampton eventually returned to the Congregational Church. Ebenezer Hutchinson, Timothy's son, got baptized as an adult with his children in Kingston's First Church. If Timothy followed the Quaker practice of not using headstones and is buried at his homestead there would be no evidence left behind.

Summary of 2nd Division

Surnames of Neighbors; Loverell, Philbrick, Green, Perkins, Robie, Shaw, Sleeper, Swett, Dow, Sanborn, Smith, Emmons, Lane, Weare, Hilliard, Fogg, Stanyon, Fellows, Blake and Page. Of these twenty surnames, twelve were cordwainers. Two were tanners, one was a tailor and the others were listed as yeoman, husbandman, merchant or gentleman. Geographic locality was confined to the area around Timothy's properties. I call this list of surnames the Timothy[B2] .Clan

Sixty percent of Timothy's neighbors were associated with shoemaking. Only three of these were of Timothy's age or older. It would seem that due to ages and histories, training to become a cordwainer was active in the area.

Note the Blaisdell Family just west of the boundary between Kensington and East Kingston. Also note that Trickling Falls is at the crossroads in East Kingston where we still see many of the Salisbury Family Names one hundred years later.

I have a nagging feeling that the farm came out of the 5th division of the 5 divisions in 1722, Quarter Mile remnants. (which would mean the the First West Division was almost immediately and significantly altered by the reality on the ground.

I will try to look into it for a while today.
Your deed references are saving me hours and hours, thank you!
A suggestion: the customary registry abreviation around here is RCRD (not NHRD) because NH deeds are housed by county, i.e. in the Rockingham County Registry of Deeds. Hoping you can do an easy text replacement?
Also, is there a connection with the Anne Hutchinson (and is it the same Samuel Hutchinson) mentioned in the Exeter History?

Just throwing stuff at you as I see it before I forget...

The 3rd Division of my book.
The Third Division TIMOTHY'S CHILDHOOD

Of the possible paths to discover who the parents of Timothy are we can only speculate. A few Hutchinson/Hutchins lines can be excluded due to DNA but for the others this is the end of the line for now. The only known Timothy born at the right time is that of Timothy the son of Samuel Hutchinson and Hannah Johnson. With just enough data to suggest the possibility we will continue along this line.

Samuel Hutchinson, born about 1618, married Hannah Johnson in 1662 in Andover MA at forty-four years of age. Born in England, he was from Lynn originally then Reading as indicated by tax records but I feel he had to have purchased land in Andover around the year he married there. Samuel appears to be a successful land owner as he sells his reading property to Richard Sutton in 1670 for three hundred pounds. He sold some more of his property in Andover to Simon Bradstreet, land he previously had bought from Richard Sutton in 1671. In 1664 George Abbott Sr bought land from Richard Sutton along the west side of Shawshin River along Little Hope Brook. I believe Samuel also purchased from Richard Sutton some of the adjoining ground at about the same time. At this time the settlers were not allowed to live on their farms and were given house lots in the village to protect them from Indian attacks.

Abbot, Nehemiah Abbot, fence viewers; Sgt. Ephraim Stevens, clerk of the market; Sgt. George Abbot , leather sealer; Benjamin Barker, William Johnson, pound-keeper; Mr. Andrew Peters, town treasurer*

In 1674 we find Samuel in Salisbury as part of a jury then in 1678 Samuel and Hannah were living in the southern parish of Andover. The couple had at least eight children. The eldest, John, was killed in 1689 so is not named on the estate distribution list. From Court Records we find Samuel Hutchinson and his wife Hannah Johnson are in and out of trouble. Court documents paint a picture of a dysfunctional family, Hannah was taken to court for lying, cursing and stealing. In 1675, the selectmen of Andover asked a judge to have the children “put out” with other families for their own protection. This request was granted in 1678. In 1678 Samuel and Hannah sell land in the south parish to William Chandler. I believe that this was not all of their property but enough to cover the costs of having the children put out to other families. No court records for Hannah or Samuel or their children are found for the years 1679-1686, Essex Co, MA. In 1689 Hannah Hutchinson was in court for, but acquitted of, murder, being accused by neighbor Hugh Stone of killing his wife Hannah Foster. [Notes for Hugh Stone]

We will assume that Hannah's father, John Johnson who is the children's maternal grandfather, takes in at least Samuel and Timothy Hutchinson, as often happens the children are spread around to other qualifying neighbors. It is unknown why Hannah and Samuel were such a difficult couple. It was suggested that she is the reason for his excessive drinking. Once she was quoted as saying she would love another "if the old rogue were dead!" Samuel Hutchinson may have been the Samuel son of Thomas, who was hit in the hit and may have had permanent damage of some sort. I am sure that there is more of a story behind Samuel and Hannah than what we can glean from court documents.

What an environment to grow up in, parents in and out of jail until the town selectmen come to the children's rescue. Timothy is assumed to be put under the care of his maternal grandfather with his brother Samuel Jr. As they are taught the secrets of the cordwainers trade their lives are shaken by dissension in the church and eventually the witch hunt hysteria. Andover was hard hit with the Johnson and the Dane families having multiple family members taken to trial for being witches. When John Johnson dies around 1688 Timothy is moved to Salisbury to finish his training as a cordwainer.

"During the course of the legal proceedings, more than 40 Andover citizens, mostly women, and children were formally accused of having made a covenant with the Devil. Three Andover residents, Martha Carrier, Mary Ayer Parker, and Samuel Wardwell, were convicted and executed. Five more either pled guilty at arraignment or were convicted at trial. These included Mary Lacey Sr., Abigail Faulkner Sr., Sarah Wardwell, Elizabeth Johnson, Jr., and Ann Foster. Those who were not executed were later granted reprieves by Governor William Phips. Unfortunately, Ann Foster died in prison before she could be released. Before the hysteria in Andover ended, some 80% of the town's residents had been drawn into the witch hunt. Andover also holds the dubious distinction of having the most confessed witches, and the highest number of children arrested."[https://www.legendsofamerica.com/ma-andover/]

You could only imagine what this would do to minds whose childhood had already been effected by a dysfunctional family. I believe that Timothy saw in Rev. Francis Dane's acceptance of the new puritan ideology and the valiant effort to curtail the witch trials, a champion to emulate.

"Although there are very few papers that remain from Dane's pen, one might surmise that he followed the more lenient teachings of the Half-Way Covenant, which began to appear in the early 1660s. This Puritan ideology allowed for the children of church members to be baptized and receive instruction without becoming full church members — those receiving the Lord's Supper. [https://andoverhistorical.org/explore-andover-stories-blog/the-faith-of-the-reverend-francis-dane]

To match what we learned from Timothy's children about growing up a cordwainer, we needed to identify who existed around Timothy as a child to try and duplicate what we found in his children. The most obvious place to start was Timothy's older brother Samuel. He is clearly listed as a cordwainer. Where did he learn his trade? Look no further than his grandfather John Johnson. So if Mr. Johnson trained Samuel, who else might he trained? I searched for those who listed their trade as cordwainer or shoemaker. After finding others listed as such I sought the probable source to allow the individual to become accomplished in the trade. Did it run in the family? Were there others in the family with similar skills? Often I found the father was listed as husbandman and the son as a cordwainer indicating that his training was outside the family. Only those cordwainers living close to John Johnson were accepted as candidates to be trained with Timothy Hutchinson.

It was bugging me about the 2WD lot ranges so I double checked..... it is the 5th range of lots you want, not the 6th... starting with lot 53 and going 15 lots. Narrative doesn't mention a highway on either end which is unusual.... implies that they put on on the north end

The Hussey Farm of the Five Farms is nowhere near our locus. It's in Hampton Falls between Route 1 and the railroad.

OK first I found a couple of deeds that I am sure you have but I am keeping my eye out for anything that might help you.
New Hampshire Rockingham Co Deed 14-72 Cass to Row 6th lot on Kanes Brook
13-23 Gill to Hoyt 13th lot on Kanes Brook

Now for my discovery. RCRD 0007-0191 Marston to Weare
This deed states that John Marston is of both Andover, MA and Hampton, NH and that he has the 1st lot of the "New Plantation" in Hampton that Peter Weare buys from him. Witnessed by Samuel Hutchinson of Andover. I know that it is just circumstantial evidence but by connecting Peter Weare and Samuel Hutchinson even as a witness, strengthens my belief that the Timothy born of Andover and the one found in Hampton Falls in 1710 are the same man. Yes I know that the first lot is on the southern border of Hampton but it still gives me an important data point to work with.

Not really up yet but Hampton history says Peter Weare was basically a real estate broker... also 029-215 and 107-390 (50 ac north half of James Bridges grant) call for the road on the north.... that would put Peter Weare 12 ac (and Timothy's first house) on north side of road.... wrench wrench $$#@@!!!
Green Farm big piece fits there so nicely and David Green is the grantee in 107-390.... my morning visitors attached.... looks like a double date.

ok, not a bad thing as I need a break.... other things pressing at the moment....
I now know where the Portsmouth Court records are (1679-1741 Portsmouth was the capitol of the Province of NH and was where court disputes were adjudicated).
I'm not going to tell you right now..... the keeper of them will try to look into whether other Hampton grants were decreed by the court for unsatisfied New Plantation claims.... in case any of them did not get recorded at Registry of Deeds....
I will speak to you on the other side of this hiatus...

No new revelations but I am still accumulating a lot of deeds. The whole "New Plantation" title is used for Kingston, the Quarter Mile Commons and other localities that I cannot identify. Need more input so I will continue the search.

I do not believe the quarter mile was ever thought of as part of the new plantation, so please send me what you have that you think says that so I can address it or stand corrected.

It is hidden in the text. Samuel Dalton To Nathan Longfellow three quarters of four score acres lying in a place commonly known by the name of the New Plantation which land was granted originally and returned tunto Mr Thomas Philbrick of Hampton lawfully claimed by Thomas Philbrick Jr now living in Hampton and lawfully conveyed unto the above said Samuel Dalton by the last mentioned Thomas Philbrick as by a deed bearing date of the nineteenth day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty two in which four score acres granted above mentioned is the fifteenth Grant in the Hampton Town Book.
I have found many things buried in deeds. My Johnson Hutchinson now has a complete family because of one such deed. Good luck in your endeavors and I will send you a copy when the final draft is done. My mom who in 97 years old is acting as my editor. She has written many books and was an english teacher so she just could not understand why her son couldn't write his way out of a cardboard box. Ha. John Fuller, the one man born in old England who came here, and was here in 1670, either died or moved away. He came from England in 1635 with William Fuller of Hampton. I do not know what was his relationship to William. He was born in 1620. He was the first white settler and was probably a single man; I find no record of his marriage or being a father.

Jonathan Prescott, Nathaniel Prescott and Deacon John Prescott, and William Brown, were the earliest of the settlers who made permanent homes here. The Prescotts were sons of James, who built at "Apple Crest" in 1667.

Jonathan had the farm where Dr. Clifford G. Rounsefell now lives; Nathaniel had the farm where George A. Prescott now lives; and Deacon John had the farm where Melvin Armstrong now lives.

William Brown settled here some time in 1702 on the farm where Sumner Card now lives. He died in 1725, leaving two houses; he having already built a large frame house and giving his early small house to a daughter who married Nathan Cluff in 1722.
